

THE ONLY THING THAT'S CERTAIN IS CHANGE!

Transition is a part of life...
but your loved one's transition
from elementary to middle school
middle to high school
high school to the adult world
may be keeping you up at night!

If we have learned anything in the past year,
it's that the future is uncertain. Spring is a great time for growth and renewal!

Post transition plans, Aging & Disability Resource Center, financial and estate planning, guardianship, government benefits, supportive decision-making and more. Meet the needs and guarantee quality of care for that special person in your life!

Benefit from the knowledge of our expert presenters! Ask all your questions, or just listen and learn.

This workshop is FREE, but registration by Sunday, May 9 is required. No prior knowledge necessary!

ABOUT OUR PRESENTERS:

Robert Johnston (Bob) is the father of a son diagnosed with ASD. He is also the survivor of a 1985 car accident that resulted in 22 orthopedic reconstruction surgeries over 43 years. Consequently, he understands the challenges that are faced by both patient and parent. He is an agency special care planner for WestPoint Financial Group and founder of Special Needs Planning, LLC.

Philip J. Miller is a partner in the law firm of Husch Blackwell LLP, working in the areas of estate planning, probate and trust administration, business succession planning, marital property and tax planning. Phil's practice includes planning for unique assets, international consideration, and beneficiaries with special needs. He has been listed in The Best Lawyers in America since 2007.
